

Oregon Dyslexia Training

Keys to Literacy is an Oregon Department of Education approved provider for dyslexia training.

Who is this training for?

Every Oregon school serving K-5 students must identify at least one teacher who is responsible for receiving approved training in these content areas: 1) Understanding and Recognizing Dyslexia, 2) Using Evidence-Based Practices to Teach Foundational Reading Skills, and 3) Intensifying Instruction.

Why choose Keys to Literacy to provide your Literacy Content Leader training?

Our approved coursework enables teachers to complete the requirements for all three of the content areas from the same vendor.

Keys to Literacy is a nationally recognized leader in the field of literacy professional development and our trainers have deep knowledge and experience about research-based reading instruction practices.

Our practical, approved courses help participants make connections to classroom instruction and are economically priced. Participants have a choice for completing the training courses: 1) hybrid, facilitated online course; 2) virtual-live using Zoom; 3) face-to-face at a school/district.

Information About Requirement #1: Understanding and Recognizing Dyslexia Course

Keys to Understanding Dyslexia is an approved 6-hour training that provides the background knowledge about dyslexia that elementary educators need in order to understand why students with dyslexia have difficulty with reading and how to support them in the classroom. Topics include:

- What is dyslexia?
- The Reading Brain
- 5 Components of Reading
- Screening for Dyslexia
- Structure literacy Instruction: Sounds, Sound-Symbol Correspondences, Syllable Types, Morphemes

Format Options and Costs

Format Option	Description	Cost
Hybrid, Facilitated Online Course	This format combines a 6-hour online course with two, 1-hour virtual-live sessions facilitated by a Keys to Literacy trainer. Complete the first half of the course at your own pace and attend the first session. Then complete the rest of the online course before the final session.
	Individuals can join a Keys to Literacy Oregon training that is open to the public. Register at our Events Website .	$99 per person
	A district can contract with Keys to Literacy to provide the training based on the district's schedule. Contact us.	$99 per person plus $1200 per cohort for the facilitated sessions maximum 35 per cohort

Virtual-Live Using Zoom	A Keys to Literacy trainer delivers this course during a 1-day, virtual-live training session using Zoom.
	Individuals can join a Keys to Literacy Oregon training that is open to the public. Register at our Events Website .	$149 per person
	A district can contract with Keys to Literacy to provide the training based on the district's schedule. Contact us.	$2,900 maximum 35 per cohort
Face-to-Face, Onsite at the District	A district can contract with Keys to Literacy to provide the training onsite based on the district's schedule. Contact us.
		$3,600 maximum 35 per cohort

Information About Requirements #2 and #3:
Using Evidence-Based Practices to Teach Foundational Skills AND Intensifying Instruction

A customized version of our Keys to Beginning Reading course is an approved 36-hour training that meets requirements #2 and #3. The course provides the background knowledge needed to teach all the components of beginning reading instruction. Instructional suggestions are easily transferred to classroom lessons and can be integrated with any reading curriculum or published program. Course cost includes a 460-page training manual. The course is organized into these modules:

- Reading Basics
- Oral Language
- Phonological Awareness
- Phonics
- Fluency
- Vocabulary
- Comprehension
- Students with Reading Difficulties
- Reading Assessment

Format Options and Costs

Format Option	Description	Cost
Hybrid, Facilitated Online Course	This format combines the 36-hour online course with 12.5 hours of virtual-live sessions, facilitated by a Keys to Literacy trainer. Participants complete sections of the online course at their own pace, interspersed with virtual-live sessions.
	Individuals can join a Keys to Literacy Oregon training that is open to the public. Register at our Events Website .	$599 per person (includes online course registration, training manual, and 12 hours of facilitated sessions)
	A district can contract with Keys to Literacy to provide the hybrid training based on the district's schedule. Contact us.	$299 per person (includes online course registration and manual) Plus $6,000 per cohort for the 12 hours of facilitated sessions maximum of 35 per cohort

Virtual-Live Using Zoom	Participate in 7 days of live training delivered by Keys to Literacy trainers using Zoom meeting software to provide a virtual-live format. Dates are staggered across multiple months to provide time in between for classroom application.
	Individuals can join a 7-day Keys to Literacy Oregon training that is open to the public. Register at our Events Website .	$999 per person (includes training manual)
	A district can contract with Keys to Literacy to provide the 7-day training based on the district's schedule. Contact us.	$20,300 plus $107 per person for manual maximum 35 per cohort
Face-to-Face, Onsite at the District	A district can contract with Keys to Literacy to provide the 7-day training onsite based on the district's schedule. Contact us.	$25,200 plus $107 per person for manual maximum 35 per cohort

Keys to Literacy

319 Newburyport Tpke, Suite 205, Rowley, MA 01969

Phone: 978-948-8511 Email: info@keystoliteracy.com Website: www.keystoliteracy.com

Register at our Events Website.